

44
KEN HAYDEN

FEATURES

- 44 Life in the Sand Box
Scott Hughes' prize-winning beach house is all about the new era of intelligent luxury. By Tom Austin
- 50 Bayside Beauty
In Coconut Grove, the design team of Jenny Peters and Rachel Mbiango imbue a waterfront townhouse with a sense of luxury and tradition, guided by their obsession with art and antiques. By Peter Stepek
- 56 Grand Scale
Zeb Jarosz, architect and builder, shows off his keen sensibility for creating over-the-top homes that maintain their sense of class. By Daisy Olivera

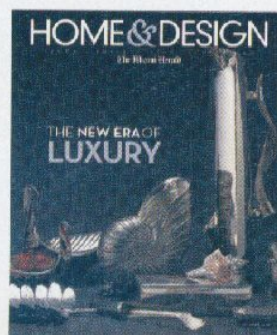

DEPARTMENTS

- 12 Editor's Letter
By Sarah G. Harrelson
- 14 Contributors
- 16 H&D Events
The Miami Design District celebrated their Art and Design Night on September 9th.
- 18 Design Happenings
The latest in luxury items from the world of design.
- 27 Best of...
Nothing says luxury quite like silver and gold. From exquisite pitchers to a Moroccan-inspired chandelier, we've located treasures perfect for adding that extra polish to your home's decor.
- 32 Insider
The tray has become one of the design world's most useful and beautiful home accessories. Our resident decorating guru, Juan Carlos Arcila-Duque, serves them up, from traditional to modern—and everything in between.
- 36 Talent
Casa Decor sets out to create South Florida's premier design showhouse. The doors open November 10.
- 62 Resource Guide
How to contact our advertisers.
- 64 Tastemaker
Despite the cooling real estate market, Esther Percal says luxury properties remain a hot commodity, especially in South Florida. Writer Bobby Killgore catches up with one of the area's most prominent realtors.

OCTOBER

H&D'S LUXURY ISSUE

2006

ON THE COVER

Perfect for creating a luxe look, these carefully chosen silver objects would dress up any interior.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MARK ROSKAMS
STYLED BY DOUG MEYER

See page 27 for credits.